DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendment dated 08/16/2007 has been received and entered. By the amendment, claims 8-15 are remain pending in the application.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 8-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matsushima, US 5,917,563, in view of Yang, US 7,142,260.

Regarding the above claims, Matsushima disclose a pixel structure for liquid crystal display (LCD) device (figures 10-11) comprising

- . a first substrate (10)

- . a single type polysilicon thin film transistor (TFT) having a gate electrode (16a), source/drain and channel region (thin film 11)

- . a pixel (25)

- . a storage capacitor including an upper electrode (54), dielectric insulating layer (13) and bottom electrode (portion extended from source/drain region)

. a second substrate and a liquid crystal layer inherently forming in the device (according to the LCD device).

Matsushima, however, do not clearly disclose a low temperature polysilicon type TFT. Yang does disclose a single-type low temperature polysilicon TFT can be formed in an LCD device. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to employ the Matsushima's device with a single type low temperature polysilicon TFT, since it is a common practice in the LCD art and the examiner takes Office Notice of the equivalence of a regular type polysilicon TFT and a single-type low temperature polysilicon TFT for their use in the display art and the selection of any of these known equivalents for display driving purposes would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
